Very Important Notice About Membership Renewal

Your 2018 membership renewal will be coming up right around the corner and your dues payment must be post-marked by February 1, 2018, or your membership will be dropped and you will have to reapply for MLGC membership. There will be no exceptions to this, so please mark your calendars and send in your payment in plenty of time. Don't wait until the last minute!

Electrician Needed!

From time to time the Mother Lode Gun Club requires the services of a licensed electrician. If you are a club member who has this skill, please contact Dick Coffin at 352-8750

Notice to Trap Shooters

On Saturday, October 14, Trap 3 will close for a private training class. However, there will be regular Trap as usual on the other trap ranges.

Annie Oakley Academy

The Annie Oakley Academy will be held at the Mother Lode Gun Club from 1–6 PM on Sunday, October 8, 2017. All ranges are closed that day for this event. The cost is $45 for ladies and will include workshops, demos, an auction and gun raffle ticket as well as dinner. The workshops will include Home Defense Strategies & Tactics; Shotguns – What You Need To Know; Staying Safe In The Outdoors; and Help – I'm Lost and Scared. Gentlemen may join us for dinner, demos, gun raffles and auction for $25.

Attendance is limited – Pre-sale only! Tickets are available at Hurst Ranch, Let-Er-Buck, The Farmory and the Sheriff's Department. This event benefits Tuolumne County Sheriff's Search and Rescue Unit. For more information, please call (209) 743-3628 or (209) 768-4158.

It is one of the dismal lessons of the twentieth century that, once a state is allowed to expand, it is almost impossible to contract it.
